David Kamp is Speaker at Buffalo School Spring 2015 Lecture Series

New York, NY – February 23, 2015 – The Buffalo School is pleased to announce an exciting lineup of lectures and exhibitions for its Spring 2015 series of public events. David Kamp, FASLA, LF, NA and Principal of Dirtworks, PC will lecture on "Nature and Human Nature" on March 25, 2015. The presentation will focus on an understanding salutogenesis and how salutogenic design concepts can help establish and strengthen health-promoting resources for communities and address larger health inequalities.

The Buffalo School program brings leading thinkers and practitioners in architecture, planning and the design professions to Buffalo to engage public dialogue on critical issues in the profession today. The program begins on February 18, 2015 through April 29, 2015.
